MEMORANDUM

TO: Honorable Chairperson and Members
Board of County Commissioners

DATE: September 9, 2003

FROM: George M. Burgess
County Manager

A handwritten signature in black ink, which appears to read "Burgess", is written over the printed name of George M. Burgess.

SUBJECT: Ordinance prohibiting naming, renaming or codesignating or continuing to name, rename or codesignate a county road for a person convicted of a misdemeanor or felony

This ordinance will have a one-time fiscal impact on Miami-Dade County. The County currently has 363 codesignated roads. We are currently checking to see how many, if any, have been co-designated for persons convicted of felonies or misdemeanors. The Public Works Department estimates that it will cost approximately $250 per signal and $150 per ground mounted sign to remove the codesignations.
